THE g ring infringement of Treaty rights by the late Governor of Formosa exposed by a correspondent of the N. C. Daily News, in batch of prisoners charged with various crimes, a letter published in yesterday's issue, ought sinister and fercoious countenance kneeled fornot to escape the notice of Sir John Wal- ward and said, "I confess that I have committed SRAM. Indeed, there can be little doubt that forcible representations on the subject will whom have been caught and executed by you. be laid before him by the Douglas Steamship But in your fury and blind seal you have put to Company, Limited, the parties most affected by this most inequitable act. As stated by Nearly twenty innocent people have been sacrificthe correspondent in question the steamers ed and I hope your Excellency will be careful in fators." The General modded his approval and the Fermese Trading Corporation are to be appropriate with the distance of the paragraphs enabled to compete successfully with the foreign Company by the following unfair means. The Lokin Office has been directed to pass, free of lekin, export goods intended for shipment by the steamers of the nativemust be to drive shippers to give cargo to the favoured vessels. This is unquestionably a violation of the spirit of all the Treaties, and a direct infringement of the stipulations of some of them. In Article XV. of the American Treaty of 1844, it is expressly provided that citizens of the United States "shall not be subject to any new limitations, "nor impeded in their business by mono-"polies or other injurious restrictions." The French Treaty of 1858 contains like wise a very explicit declaration on this point, Article XIV. providing that "no pri-"vileged commercial society shall hence-"forward be established in China, and the "same shall apply to any organised coalition " having for its end the exercise of a mono. " poly of trade." Yet here we find the Governor of Formosa, embaldened no doubt by the absolute indifference exhibited by the British Minister to the complaints of British subjects of wrongs suffered by them, venturing openly to erect a monopoly the immediate object of which is to injuriously restrict-foreign trade. Unfortunately for the Douglas Steamship Company Sir John WALSHAM still lingers at Peking, and any chance of their obtaining the abolition of this monopoly is faint until his successor arto compel the Minister to take action, failing which direct application to the Foreign Office should be made. It is lamentable to think that at such a juncture, when British interests are suffering from the illegal act of an unscrupulous mandarin, appeal to the natural and duly constituted protector of those interests should have to be regarded as a useless formality, how useless the correspondence published in another column in reference to a complaint by Messrs. TAIT & Co., of Amoy, only too clearly shows. The flower sellers, whose modest industry ns hitherto formed an agreeable feature of the street life of Hongkong in the neighbourhood of the Club, have been "moved on," or, to be more correct, " moved off Flowers are no doubt still obtainable by those who care to go to the trouble of look- were then indicate thy the successive firing of ing for them, but button-holes and bouquets are no longer tendered to passers by in the street. Considerable dissatisfaction has been expressed at the new departure. The customers of the disestablished flower sellers, and probably many others who have not been in the habit of buying flowers themselves, miss with regret the pleasant sight of the nosegays spread out on the sidewalk. The reason alleged for their removal is, we under- moon (24th day). From Hangehow and other stand, that they caused an obstruction, but control in Chickings on the contracy, the cois reported as a very good one. as the sidewalk at this point is seldom or never used the obstruction could not be a matter of any serious consequence, and ought to have weighed lightly against foreign patent medicines which find roady sal the pleasure and convenience of the old arrangement. If the campaign against the latter produces so little in that obstruction is to be carried to this longth it will be necessary to remove, the Club punkah coolice who pull from the same sidewalk. As regards obstruction it will not do to have one law for an infinential institution like the Club and another for flower sellers, insugnificant as the interests or influence of the latter may be. If any first to Spain to give them a Spanish origin. real inconvenience were caused by the flower sellers becoming too numerous and spread. ing too far up the hill it would be easy to lerated but beyond which they would be treat.

specify limits within which they would be tosell bouquets but not make them up in the street. It is a case in which we think some amount of toleration should be shown. To sweep away entirely such an industry appears a needlessly ruthless and crue's act on country." The police, on discovering these His Lordship—i can see very little from your the part of the Government.

To the autatored eye the Chinaman of Kiangsu is an exact replica of his brother in distant Szechnen, and it is only when viewed under the strong objective glass of the sinologue that we come to discriminate, between the various provincials. One of the drawbacks to all Chinese scenery is its monotony, its lack of that variety which we know charms the eye. Reposeand a certain beauty and calmit frequently possesses, but it wants the greater attraction of tion and edormous natural wealth, of less interest than almost any other region of the globe. In the same way there is a dismal and depressing sameness in the history of China and the incidents which characterised the dynasties of the Chous and the Sungs might, without any apparent anachronism, be ascribed to those of the Mings or the present Ta Tsins. This constant recurrence of the same old stories pertainly be ascribed as much to the lack of the inventive faculty of the people as to their invate sense of conservatism. We are struck by this in the pages of the Poking Gazette, which harp on the same old strings, with never a varying strain, century after contury; in the stories of Chimeso revolt, crime or superstition, and, in short, in everything which goes to make the history of han was contemplated when the Treaty was | this singularly automatic people. According to a popular saying there is a revolt or a revolution of more than ordinary dimensions every twenty-live years, and as we are just passing of 1870 we cannot fail to notice the similarity of the state of affairs then and now. Then the culminating point of a period of excitement due to the circulation of the same idiotic old stories about the weakness of Roman Catholic missionaries for the optics and hearts of Chinese children, which have been the stock-in-trade last three centuries. The Vicercy of Nanking was, however, an exception to the general rule and he had the hardihood to give his countenance to the Foreign missionaries near his capital by personally visiting many of them on the very day that a general rising was expected. A few days afterwards, while the Proinoial Examinations were going on in Nanking, and while some twenty or thirty thousand civil and military students were assembled, the stordy Vicercy was assassinated in the Examination Hall by a petty mandarin, who, when making a salasm to his victim, treacherously drove a knife into his groin, causing him to expire almost immediately The Vicercy had been threatened by the White Lily and Triad men not to interfere with their programme, in the same way as the present Nanking Viceroy has been warned by the Kolaos We can therefore hardly wonder that H.E. Liu Kun vi is reported to be overcome by terror at the threats of his promising people, and that he shut himself up in his vamen with all the available soldiers he could gather about him while the premises of the missionavies were being burnt and looted by the rabble. We have, of course, not yet time to learn what steps the representatives of the Treaty Powers interested propose to take to obtain reparation for the serious injuries done to their subjects, but as every Treaty right appears in China to have its monetary equivalent, NANKING, 25th May we presume it is under consideration to make

THE STOCK, SHARE, AND DEBEN. L TURE INVESTMENT COMPANY. LIMITED. PROSPECTUS.

1.—This Company is formed for the purpose of trading generally in Stocks, Shares, and De boutures of Dividend-paying Companies (and Dividend-paying Companies only) established or doing business in the Straits Settlements, Hongkong, China, and Japan. Mining and Planting Companies, whether dividendpaying or not, are excluded from the scope of the Company's operations.

2—The Capital of the Company is fixed a $975,000 divided into 19,000 Ordinary shares of $50 each, of which $25 will be called up ($5 on application, $10 on allotment, and the remaining $10 as may be required, but not until six months from date of allotment) and 250 shares, to be called Founders' shares, of $100 each, to be fully paid up on application. Applicants for Founders' shares must be prepared to take up not less than 76 Ordinary shares for each Founder's share allotted them, or, at their option, to underwrite that number of Ordinary shares if they do not care to take 3.—Founders' shares will not be entitled in

After payment of an 8 per cent. dividend on Ordinary shares, and after any provision that it may be deemed advisable to make for a Reserve Fund has been made, the balance of monies available for distribution will be divided into two equal parts, of which one will be divided among the holders of Ordinary shares and the other among the holders of the Founders' inst. at 3.30 P.M. The Holders of Founders' shares will be in-

5.—The business of the Company will be condusted in Hougkong by a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than three nor more than five, of whom one shall be Managing Director and Chairman, with a Secretary (Adam Lind) and a competent European staff: No fees shall be payable to the Directors except the Managing Director, in any year until holders of Ordinary shares have received at least 8 per cent on the amount paid up on their shares. The first Directors are-

H. W. Dick, Managing Director and G. S. Coxon. E. H. MELBYE: who shall hold office until the first annual meeting to be held in the year 1892. 6. With a paid up Capital of $500,000, a reserve liability of $475,000, and a select body of shareholders, this Company may reasonably hope to be able to carry on operations to the extent of from three to five millions of dollars, obtaining from local Banks and financial institutions facilities that no individual dealer or firm could command, and affording, in turn, to these institutions, guarantees and securities they could not well obtain elsewhere. 7.-Reasonably handsome dividends on the paid up capital may be seenred by simply investing in, and holding, carefully selected local dividend-paying Stocks, purchased at the favourable moment. Trust Companies in England ago, the average return on investment made then would now be about 172 per cent on the money originally laid out, and the increase in value of the Stocks purchased would average about 140 per cent.
